Easter Greeting!

Mt. Sterling's most dependable store bids you come look through and try the finest Suits, Hats, Shoes and Furnishings ever brought to this city. For years we have enjoyed leadership in Mt. Sterling, not only for the volume of business transacted, but for grade of goods handled our store is Fashion's mecca, and here the newest and latest Spring Styles, fresh from the tailors and factories, abound in profusion. You may find as large stocks as ours, but the variety, style and quality of the merchandise is not there. We have done more to bring the Clothing business of this city shoulder to shoulder with the high class tailors than any store in town. We shall continue to march onward and upward each season, and each year, out-doing the past.

Fashion's Decree for SPRING 1902.

EASTER THIS SEASON

Finds us more determined to sell and please you than ever before. It is no longer a question of doing as well by you as other stores. We do better here; we mean it. We use clothing-brains.

Our stock of 3-button Sack, 4-button Sack, 2-button Double Breasted Sack and Military Sack Suits, made in the new shape holding way, will back our assertions.

Young Men,

If you want the style, fit and workmanship in your clothes, we are the only house in this section that can supply you.

EASTER HATS

From John B. Stetson and the Famous Knox.

Young men, you want a becoming Hat? Come here. One style don't suit every make-up, but the same style in different proportions some times makes it possible to wear the most extreme styles. We show more shapes, more colors, that are correct, in good Hats, than any two stores in town.

Come here, take your time and be suited.

Everything FOR Man or Boy.

Easter Clothing FOR THE Boys and Little Men.

Every Dollar's worth of our Boys' and Children's Clothing has been copied from the men's styles in cut and pattern. We are showing many novelties in Norfolk, Norfolk with yoke and the new combination coat, pants and belt suits for boys from 3 to 16 years. A look through our suits, which range from $1.50 to $7.50, will be worth any mother's time who cares to dress her boy well.

Again we respectfully invite you to call and see the only real up-to-the-times lines of merchandise for Men and Boys in this section.

DEATHS.

SMITH.—Prof. H. C. Smith aged 71 yrs. a native of Mason county died in Mayville on March 16th.

SKILLMAN.—Dr. Henry Skillman, of Lexington, aged 70 years, is dead. He was a prominent man.

CHENAUET.—Samuel Chenauet, aged 83 years, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Emma Quisenberry, near Winchester.

JONES.—The wife of Rev. J. B. Jones, of Fulton, Mo., is dead. The funeral service was held at Carlisle, Ky. She was the daughter of Rev. Jno. I. Rogers.

MEADE.—Mrs. Lida Meade died of malarial fever at her home this city, Sunday morning, March 23. Her husband died about three weeks ago, and since then she has not cared to live. Mrs. Meade came here with her husband several months ago and made many warm friends. Funeral service will be held at the late home on Richmond avenue this morning at 10 o'clock by Rev. H. D. Clark, and her remains will be taken to Owingsville for burial.

JACOBS.—The venerable James Jacobs died Friday morning March 14 at the home of his daughter Mrs. W. S. Dudley, of Carlisle.

He had reached the advanced age of ninety-seven. He was born in Prince William County, Va., and in 1826 came to Mayville with his three brothers, John, Lewis and Benjamin, the four engaging in the manufacture of plows. Mr. Jacobs was the first to take plows to the South, and this firm in course of time built up a big trade in that territory.

The latter years of his life were spent in Flemingsburg and Carlisle.

BARNES.—On last Wednesday morning Miss Julia Barber, who for the past three months had been a sufferer from consumption, departed this life. Had she lived until Friday the 21st she would have been 22 years old. Funeral services were conducted at the Baptist church Friday morning by her pastor, Rev. W. J. Bolin, and her remains were buried in Macedonia cemetery. When so young and hopeful is thus stricken down it is a source of the deepest regret. Miss Barber a few years ago graduated from the Mt. Sterling High School, later took a business course, and was therefore prepared for life's duties and began the work of providing for mother. The preacher in his discourse truly said she was a mother. Early in life she accepted Christ as her savior, lived by faith and died depending alone upon Him for salvation. In the Sunday School, as a member of the Young People's Meeting—wherever called she did her work well. A business woman of this city speaking of the deceased, said: "She worked for us, had much energy, and no work was too intricate for her to engage. She was faithful and brave." When her loved one must die she met the king of terror bravely and passed out from earth without even a complaint. She leaves a widowed mother and two brothers to mourn her loss.

How sad—Week before last there was joy in the home of David Howell; a daughter had come to gladden the hearts of fond parents. One week later death entered the home and the little one joined the hosts of the redeemed.

Thursday afternoon at 4.30 o'clock the death angel entered the home and this time placed his cold, clammy hand on the mother and her lips were sealed, the soul had departed. Sadie Berkeley Howell was born August 7, 1873, grew to young womanhood in this city; was educated by Mrs. Lou Harris, graduated in June, and 1890 became one of the Faculty of the Mt. Sterling High School. Served well for six years, was married to David Howell June 19th, 1897. To them was born Katherine, April 13, 1899, and Sarah Berkeley, March 9, 1902. Departed for the home last week prepared for the home last week, from an unrelenting attack of peritonitis. Funeral services were held at the Methodist Church Saturday morning by the pastor Rev. D. W. Robertson, assisted by Rev. H. D. Clark, and beneath a flower garden woven into a beautiful design the mortal rests in our beautiful city of the dead. Of her home life words are futile to express the beautiful character that she was. Obedient in childhood, an affectionate wife, a loving mother and a true neighbor were characteristics of her who in twenty-nine years had spent a well rounded life. She was ready for the Master when He said: "My child it is enough, come home." For 23 years this child and estimable woman had been almost of one home and we joyously testify of her christian graces. The father, mother, sister, husband and little Katherine have our tenderest sympathy. Father, lead care for and comfort the bereaved.

Mr. Valentin Epstein, aged 60 years, died Monday of pneumonia at the boarding house of Mrs. Lizzie Stephens. He had been at this boarding house since 1892, and was an employee of the Consolidated Tobacco Company. He has only one relative—a sister—in Mason county.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Mr. Max O'Connell, formerly of this city, who now has charge of the Adams Express office at Ashland, will be married April 22 to Miss Margaret Cain, of Ashland. The bride-to-be is described as being a charming young lady. The numerous friends of Mr. O'Connell in this city congratulate him on his approaching happiness.

IN-PERCE.

Mr. Wm. Hall and Miss Clara Pierce were married last evening at the residence of C. M. Madden on Locust street, Rev. W. J. Bolin officiating. Mr. Hall is a Mason county man, who since he has been with us, has by his sterling integrity and close application to business, won the good wishes of all who know him. The bride is a worthy and justly popular young lady, highly esteemed by all. The happy young couple will immediately go to homekeeping near Grassy, this county, where the groom is engaged in farming. The well wishes of their many friends go with them.

THE SICK.

J. Clay Cooper is in a serious condition under a specialist at Louisville.

Mrs. Reuben Dale, who has been quite sick at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Turley, is much better.

Not the only ones that will refund your money. I do not advertise one and over of my attractions to be the best of the season like Webster's "A Breezy Time" to be the season's best. Early in life she accepted Christ as her savior, lived by faith and died depending alone upon Him for salvation. In the Sunday School, as a member of the Young People's Meeting—wherever called she did her work well. A business woman of this city speaking of the deceased, said: "She worked for us, had much energy, and no work was too intricate for her to engage. She was faithful and brave." When her loved one must die she met the king of terror bravely and passed out from earth without even a complaint. She leaves a widowed mother and two brothers to mourn her loss.

How sad—Week before last there was joy in the home of David Howell; a daughter had come to gladden the hearts of fond parents. One week later death entered the home and the little one joined the hosts of the redeemed.

Thursday afternoon at 4.30 o'clock the death angel entered the home and this time placed his cold, clammy hand on the mother and her lips were sealed, the soul had departed. Sadie Berkeley Howell was born August 7, 1873, grew to young womanhood in this city; was educated by Mrs. Lou Harris, graduated in June, and 1890 became one of the Faculty of the Mt. Sterling High School. Served well for six years, was married to David Howell June 19th, 1897. To them was born Katherine, April 13, 1899, and Sarah Berkeley, March 9, 1902. Departed for the home last week prepared for the home last week, from an unrelenting attack of peritonitis. Funeral services were held at the Methodist Church Saturday morning by the pastor Rev. D. W. Robertson, assisted by Rev. H. D. Clark, and beneath a flower garden woven into a beautiful design the mortal rests in our beautiful city of the dead. Of her home life words are futile to express the beautiful character that she was. Obedient in childhood, an affectionate wife, a loving mother and a true neighbor were characteristics of her who in twenty-nine years had spent a well rounded life. She was ready for the Master when He said: "My child it is enough, come home." For 23 years this child and estimable woman had been almost of one home and we joyously testify of her christian graces. The father, mother, sister, husband and little Katherine have our tenderest sympathy. Father, lead care for and comfort the bereaved.

Mr. Valentin Epstein, aged 60 years, died Monday of pneumonia at the boarding house of Mrs. Lizzie Stephens. He had been at this boarding house since 1892, and was an employee of the Consolidated Tobacco Company. He has only one relative—a sister—in Mason county.

STAGE COACH DAYS IN WEST.

Traveling at Rate of Four and One Half Miles an Hour.

The stage line between Atchison and Placerville, Cal., which ran daily coaches for about five years in 1860-'65, was the finest ever known in the stage coach business, says the Atchison (Kan.) Globe. In equipment no similar line could equal it. It was the greatest stage line on the globe, carrying passengers, mail and express.

In 1864-'65 it cost more for meals between Atchison and Denver than the railroad fare now costs, with meals added. The run from Atchison to Denver is now made in something like 15 hours, as against six days in the stage coach days. At one time fare from Atchison to Denver was $175; the railroad fare at present is $15. The quickest time ever made by stage between Atchison and Denver was four and a half days. Ben Holladay, owner of the line, traveled by special coaches from Placerville, Cal., to Atchison, 2,000 miles, in 12 days and two hours, beating the regular daily schedule five days. This cost Holladay $20,000, but it was a great advertisement for his line. The stages, when crowded, carried 15 passengers, besides great quantities of mail and express.

One of the coaches used on the Atchison-Placerville line is now in the Smithsonian Institution at Washington. After leaving Atchison it was operated on the Deadwood line, and was several times captured by Indians and outlaws. Once when captured by outlaws it carried $60,000 in gold. In this attack three guards were killed. "Buffalo Bill" heard that the old coach had been abandoned and went after it, using it for years in his wild west show. In London it carried the prince of Wales, and all the notables of Europe have examined it with interest. On the fourth of July, 1895, this famous old coach was exhibited with the wild west show at Concord, N. H., where it was made. The owners and employees of the stage coach factory gave the historic old stage a great deal of attention, and in the parade it bore this sign: "1863—Home Again—1895." Another one of the old coaches is owned by J. Sterling Morton, at Nebraska City, and another is owned at Topeka, where it is still in use for tally-ho purposes.

Including Atchison and Placerville, there were 153 stations on the line, the longest in existence (1,913 miles). The fare was $225, or about 12 cents a mile. The stations were from 10 to 14 miles apart. Some days $2,000 was taken in at the stage office in Atchison for fare alone. Each passenger was allowed 45 pounds of baggage, each pound in excess cost one dollar, which was the price for carrying express. The fare to Denver during the war was $155, or 27 cents a mile per passenger. The stages were nearly always crowded and passengers were often compelled to wait several days at Atchison before they could be accommodated. A minister once refused to travel on Sunday and abandoned his place. He did not get a chance to go until the following Sunday, and then he concluded that, under certain circumstances, traveling on Sunday was excusable. Sometimes passengers booked for a certain day sold out for a bonus of from $20 to $30, and waited for a later stage.

REMAINS OF ST. AGNES.

Missing for Nearly Four Centuries and Now Brought to Light.

Some excavations carried out in the catacombs, at the expense of Cardinal Knott, bishop of Breslau, and especially under the high altar and choir of the Church of St. Agnes without the Walls, from which his eminence takes his title, have resulted in the discovery of the body of St. Agnes, one of the most interesting figures among the Christians of Rome. According to tradition she was a young girl who suffered martyrdom rather than sacrifice to the gods or accept a husband in one of the persecutions of the fourth century—probably that of Diocletian. About the year 1600 the casket containing her body was found on a marble slab in a subterranean vault under the church, and was re-interred by Pope Paul V. in a silver case. This case, with its contents, after being missing for nearly four centuries, has again been brought to light. British readers, familiar with the writings of the late Cardinal Newman will remember that Agnes is one of the leading personages in his story, entitled "Fabiola," which illustrates the life of the early Roman Christians.—London Tablet.

The VULCAN Chilled Plow!

By comparing the VULCAN PLOW with its most worthy competitor, the superiority of its construction is obvious, and a field trial to demonstrate quality of work and strength invariably results in a victory for the VULCAN.

The Vulcan

is the only Chilled Plow on the market protected by a valid patent. It differs from all others in construction in having a peculiar Point, which can neither be strained out of position nor broken by fair means, thereby avoiding costly delays and repairs.
